

On behalf of CCS-Lab we invite you to the workshop:

COMPUTING EARLY CHRISTIANITY

RESEARCHING ANCIENT TEXTS AND MINDS IN THE DIGITAL AGE

DATE: March 27, 2026

VENUE: Cafe Kulturka (Sedláčkova 216/19, Plzeň)

KEYNOTE LECTURE

- ❑ 9:00-10:30 - Paul Robertson (University of New Hampshire), “Big Data and Little Questions in Pauline Studies”

INDIVIDUAL PAPERS

- ❑ 12:30-13:30 - Zdeňka Špiclová (University of West Bohemia) & Nina Nikki (Umeå University) “The Attraction of the Enemy A Computational and Cultural Evolutionary Approach to Polemical Rhetoric in Early Christianity”
- ❑ 13:30-14:30 - Harri J. Söderholm (University of Helsinki), “Emotions in the Flesh: A Computational Approach to Affective Embodiment in Early Christianity”
- ❑ 14:30-15:00 - Coffee Break
- ❑ 15:00-16:00 - Vojtěch Kaše (University of West Bohemia), “‘Remote Sensing’ Early Christian Conceptual Ecosystems: Detecting Continuations and Ruptures in the History of Ideas
- ❑ 16:00-17:00 - Final Discussion

MORE INFO: <https://ccs.zcu.cz/cec2026>

CONTACT: Vojtěch Kaše (kase@ff.zcu.cz)

